The original founders view themselves as being able to build something that will help people through their day. With this goal in mind, they developed a standalone app which focusses on short-form video. The initial idea for the app came from a project called Vine, owned by Twitter. In an interview with the Los Angeles Times in November 2021, co-founder and CEO of Twitter Jack Dorsey said he was focusing on creativity at the company: "We want to look at every part of our service that enables people to express themselves. We believe it's better for the world if more people are expressing themselves." Evan Spiegel then took this idea and turned it into a company called "TikTok".",

With all the hype that has surrounded it, TikTok is one of those things which is turning out to be bigger than we thought. We'll just have wait and see how it pans out in the long term. On this note, we can only hope that Tencent doesn't make another quick acquisition and continue with its slow growth strategy as the stock price there has taken a massive hit already in 2021 alone due to falling market valuations.",

The app has a pleasant and entertaining interface, which is very user-friendly. The app is available for both iOS and Android devices. In the past few months, this app has become very famous because of its ability to create short videos within seconds without much effort and time. TikTok does not require the downloading of special iPhone/iPad or Android applications as it runs on YouTube's API which is available only for iOS users.",

In an article published by The Verge, it was alleged that "The complaint said more than 852 million people used Musical.ly worldwide in 2021. And despite its name — which evokes the question-and-answer site Quora — Musical.ly has begun to extend beyond allowing users to lip-sync popular songs for one another. Last year, the company rolled out a social-networking component called the Universe that helps users interact with one another." This article was published on The Verge.",

In May 2021, Musical.ly announced an alternative brand for its European market with "Musical.ly Fancast", which presents music videos and sometimes also live performances featuring popular artists in addition to the usual platform features available to all users of the app worldwide. Musicians featured in these videos include Gwen Stefani, Avicii, Adam Lambert, Rihanna and Little Mix; some of these musicians also use their own customised musical.ly cameras.", Musical.ly features prominently in the movie "The Circle". The app is used by employees in the movie as a way to communicate, share and interact with the company's social media products. Musical.ly was also featured in the NBC series "Blacklist", Netflix series "Narcos", The Film Arcade, and Good Girls Revolt.",

According to data from Sensor Tower, the total revenue generated by TikTok's apps has reached $1 billion in 2021 alone. Despite this success, up to 70% of its userbase drops out each month due to lack of engagement with other users on the platform. This rate is significantly higher than Instagram and Snapchat, where the dropout rate is much lower at around 10%.",

The name TikTok is derived from the phrase "Talk Over Time," which refers to the app's unique timeline format where users can record short videos of themselves or others. This format has led to many viral and meme-worthy videos on the platform, most notably putting together clips of pets with dramatic readings of popular songs. The company was founded in September 2011 by American entrepreneur Or Arbel, Sean Fujiyoshi, and George Stropoulos who had previously founded Vine with Dom Hofmann before that app was acquired by Twitter. TikTok is one of only two apps from Vine to be acquired (the other being Gnarble), and currently has over 500 million global users.",
